Entertainment

- The city of Jerez is famous for its wineries and horses, especially the internationally renowned exhibition performed by the Andalusian Royal School of Equestrian Art.
- The various sports activities available include horseback riding, sailing, fishing and hunting, among others.

The Wineries

- Jerez is known worldwide for being the centre of sherry wine and brandy production. Extensive vineyards and hundreds of wineries can be visited and attract a great number of tourists every year. Typical destinations in this context include: Jerez de la Frontera, El Puerto de Santa Maria, Chipiona, Sanlucar de Barrameda, among others.

The Horses

- The región is the domain of the Carthusian Horse. Viewing the performances by the Royal School of Equestrian Art is a must in Jerez de la Frontera. Further tourist attractions include visits of the Yeguada del Hierro del Bocado and the annual Horse Fair celebrated in May. There are private ranches where one can participate in a variety of activities related to the horse and bullfighting world.

Formula 1 Speedway

- The speedway was home of the European F1 Grand Prix in 1997 and 1999. When not hosting Motorcycle and Formula 1 Championships, the speedway serves as a magnificent entertainment for tourists, as well as a prime staging area for marketing and corporate events. A wide variety of activities such as performances, presentations, and conventions are held here.

The Bulls

- The world famous Bravo fighting bulls are bred and raised in the area, and can be seen grazing off the land of many of the local bull farms. Here, these awe-inspiring beasts can be observed in their natural surroundings, a scene of pure beauty.
